"From the moment I arrived, I got a positive vibe from Chicago. Now, I love having the opportunity to help others make the most of this city's incredible condo lifestyle."

– Helaine Cohen

"To attract positive things in your life, start by giving off positive energy."

This inspirational quote sums up Helaine Cohen's approach to life. It reminds her of the first time she ever visited downtown Chicago. She experienced this city's positive energy and knew in an instant that she had found her place. Having grown up in Boston and worked professionally in both Boston and in New York City, she was no stranger to the exciting urban lifestyle. However, Chicago felt just "right"—an ideal blend of a dynamic vibe that encapsulates the intellectualism, diversity, culture, opportunities and memorable qualities she loved about each of those other big cities mixed with the Midwest.

positive living

Whether she's taking a walk through her neighborhood with her dog, Godiva, or enjoying the good life with friends at the amazing shops, restaurants, theaters and galleries, Helaine feels a strong connection with the Chicago way of life. "I love the architecture and the energy of the people," she says. "It's truly the perfect fit for me."

Helaine enjoys any opportunity to play with her dog, Godiva.

When some friends invited her to visit Chicago, she decided to come see what this city was all about. She felt the connection immediately. While continuing her career in technology, Helaine began investing in real estate and it quickly became her biggest passion.

knowledge & experience

With her corporate background, Helaine felt she was best suited for commercial real estate and working with Fortune 500 companies. She was successful, but still knew something was missing. She wanted a more personal connection with clients and the opportunity to make a positive difference in their lives. Residential real estate—with an emphasis on Chicago's condo buildings—was the right answer.

Helaine shares her knowledge of Chicago's condo market to help you make sound decisions.

"Once I started helping people buy and sell condos in the city, I realized I had found my true calling," Helaine says. "It's the perfect culmination of my skills, experience and knowledge and I feel rewarded every day to make a positive impact in the lives of others."

Helaine draws from her own experience in purchasing real estate to help you make sound financial decisions to balance with the emotional aspects of a move. And as you might expect from her background in technology, she utilizes every resource available and brings an innovative approach to marketing. Helaine's website—ChicagoCondoFinder.com—has become a valuable resource for the city's condo buyers and sellers looking to make the most of their opportunities in this ever-evolving market. Her singular focus on condo buildings allows for innovative marketing strategies for sellers. If you are looking to buy a condo in the city, she knows each building intimately and can help find the ideal property that suits your specific needs and discerning tastes.
